

perennial transforming

objects | lives | communities

www.perennialstl.org

7413-15 S. Broadway, St. Louis, MO, 63111 📍 314-832-2288 📞 info@perennialstl.org

Organization: Perennial, www.perennialstl.org

Job Opportunity: Community Education Apprentice

Description:

Looking for a creative way to engage with communities all across St. Louis? Join Perennial's team as a Community Education Apprentice, and learn the ins-and-outs of event and workshop planning, marketing, preparation, and execution. From intimate creative reuse classes of 10 to 100-person crafting events, you'll get hands-on experience teaching folks to transform discarded items into new and beautiful goods.

Perennial is a 501c3 non-profit organization. For more information about Perennial visit: www.perennialstl.org

Time Requirement:

10-20 hours/ week

Tues, Thurs, or Fri availability with the ability to work events on evenings and weekends as scheduled

Desired Qualifications:

- great social skills – enjoys teaching, talking, and interacting with folks of all ages and backgrounds!
- self-starter who's able to multi-task and prioritize
- general knowledge of Microsoft office and data entry
- a generally happy, positive, and flexible person
- good at cutting things (like fabric, wood, wine corks, etc.)

Main Tasks:

- preparing found materials for classes and events (sanding, cleaning, cutting, etc.)
- engaging event attendees in creative reuse projects
- assisting instructors during workshops and classes
- marketing tasks such as posting programs to online calendars, posting flyers, etc.

Compensation:

This is an unpaid apprenticeship with the possibility of pay based on contracted events and workshops.

To Apply:

Please send resume and cover letter to Jenny Murphy, jenny@perennialstl.org